

Inviting Applications for the AY 2018 Kumamoto University Graduate School Doctoral Course Scholarship Program (KDS)

[Quota for Privately-funded International Students (only for New students enrolled in October and Prospective scholarship holders in first semester (enrolled in October, 2017))]

We have decided to establish, as part of the Kumamoto University Graduate School Doctoral Course Scholarship Program (KDS), which has been in operation since AY 2010, a “Quota for Privately-funded International Students” for international students who are studying at their own expense at Graduate School at Kumamoto University, and who have participated in projects which have been intensively supported for the purpose of establishing internationally outstanding centers of excellence or in projects that apply correspondingly. This quota will be applied to relevant privately-funded international students who have been enrolled since May 1, 2011.

1. Eligible students for the “Quota for Privately-funded International Students (only for New students enrolled in October and Prospective scholarship holders in first semester (enrolled in October, 2017))”

Privately-funded International Students who are enrolled in Kumamoto University Graduate School Doctoral Courses as of October 1, 2018, and who participate in core research (including Core Research Projects of the Graduate Schools of Kumamoto University) (including students who participate in the Global COE program in the past)

However, this excludes cases involving another scholarship program where the holders are prohibited from receiving another scholarship.

To check the availability of multiple scholarships with (KDS) and another (other) program(s), see the “Arrangement List for Combined Grants of KDS with Other Financial Support Programs” attached to this document.

* Note

1) Core research funded by a large-scale competitive grant includes research adopted for a large-scale fund by such organizations as Core Research for Evolutional Science and Technology (CREST), “Sakigake” Project, New Energy and Industrial Technology Development Organization (NEDO), Funding Program for Next Generation World Leading Researchers(NEXT Program), MEXT and MHLW. If you are an privately-funded international students who belongs to multiple COEs (ex. CREST and Core Research Project A/B), please enter all the COEs in the “letter of recommendation” (form 3).

2) An applicant for this program (KDS) cannot apply for Research Assistants (RAs) through the Kumamoto University PhD Work-Scholarship (KWS). However, if your application is not approved for this program (KDS), you can apply for KWS. The application period for KWS for non-approved applicants for KDS will be posted separately.

2. Amount of scholarship:

【New students enrolled in October, 2018】

535,800 yen (amount equivalent to annual tuition)

(* However, the amount of scholarship to be provided in this year will be half the amount of annual tuition (267,900 yen). The remaining amount (267,900 yen) will be provided next year.)

【Prospective scholarship holders in first semester(enrolled in October,2017)】

267,900 yen (half the amount of annual tuition)

3. Documents to be submitted (only for applicants from the Graduate School of Medical Sciences); Only printed documents will be accepted. (Besides printed ① Application form, you need to send your ① Application form by e-mail.)

① Application for Kumamoto University Doctoral Course Scholarship (form 1)

② Confirmation List of Documents (Score Card) (form 2)

③ A Letter of Recommendation (for privately-funded international students who participate in a large-scale core research) (form 3) * A Letter of Recommendation must be provided by your supervisor.

④ Documents that prove your participation in an academic society and/or thesis presentation which applicants are obliged to submit as stipulated in form 2.

* All relevant forms can be downloaded from

<http://www.medphas.kumamoto-u.ac.jp/en/medgrad/gakunai/sien/>

4. Submission deadline and where to submit (only for applicants from the Graduate School of Medical Sciences)

Submission deadline: October 19 (Fri), 2018 (Be sure to submit the application by the deadline.)

Where to submit: Student Affairs Section, Graduate School of Medical Sciences (at Medical Educational & Library Building 3F)

e-mail: iyg-igaku-3@jimu.kumamoto-u.ac.jp

5. Number of students recommended candidates and date of selection

Number of candidates : approximately 3 students

Date of selection : February(scheduled)

6. Other matters to be noted

- 1) Please enter your achievements in the “Confirmation List of Documents (Score Card) ” in the documents to be submitted by scoring your academic achievements as stipulated in the attachment, “How to score research performance of KDS candidates”.
- 2) Students who wish to apply for this program should prepare the necessary documents after confirming their eligibility and submit them with a Letter of Recommendation from their supervisors. The reason for recommending the student in form 3 should be entered by a representative of each field, which also applies to the reason to recommend the student in form 1 of the application form. Approval of the applications of eligible privately-funded international students who serve as the representative of their respective COEs will be confirmed by the Student Affairs Section.

7. Inquiries

Student Affairs Section, Graduate School of Medical Sciences, Kumamoto University

Tel: 096-373-5029 (ext. 5028), E-mail: iyg-igaku-3@jimu.kumamoto-u.ac.jp