The method of submission will be notified when the test results are notified.

◎Documents to Submit

- (1) Soft copy of doctoral thesis (full text) ••• For all Applicants
- (2) Summary of the doctoral thesis (PDF) •• For Applicants who wish to publish thesis abstract

Format of Documents to be Submitted

1. Application Form for Doctorate

- (1) Please sign and seal. (International Students may use their signatures instead of a seal.)
- (2) Please write one of the following: “Medical Sciences”, “Life Sciences” and “Health Life Science” in the parentheses.

2. Recommendation letter for degree applicants

- (1) Please ask your academic advisor to fill out the form.
- (2) The Academic advisor’s signature are required.

3. Letter of Consent for Submission of Thesis

- (1) The Academic advisor’s signature are required.
If you have two professors, please get both of their signature.
- (2) Please write candidate’s names of examiners.
A Chief examiner must be selected from professors in the GSMS.
Choose a professor for at least two of the four examiners.
An academic advisor, an introductory advisor, coauthors of Thesis, and advisors who belong to the same department of applicant are not permitted to be examiners.
- (3) Please write Co-authors of Thesis who belong to Kumamoto University as academic advisors.
Please be aware that the academic advisors whose name are not stated in the column might be selected as your examiner.

4. Thesis

- (1) To apply for a doctorate, applicants shall submit a thesis written by themselves as the lead authors.
- (2) The thesis must be an article published in one of the “Western-language journals for application for a doctorate”.
- (3) Up to five published papers written by applicants themselves can be included in reference papers.
- (4) If a paper was jointly written with other researchers based on equal contribution, both the applicant and other researchers will regarded as the lead authors, if this is specified in the paper. (Consent to the submission of the paper as a thesis must be obtained from other researchers in advance.)

5. Resume

- (1) Prepare the margins: top 25 mm, bottom 15 mm, left 25 mm, right 15 mm.
- (2) The font size of the title should be 12 point, while the size of the text should be 10 point.
- (3) Signature and seal using black ink or a black ballpoint pen and submit 3 original copies.

- (4) The resume should be no more than one page each.
- (5) Kana over name to indicate pronunciation.
- (6) International Students shall enter their nationality.
- (7) Please state your educational background starting from graduation of bachelor's degree of the University.
※Please provide the exact date of graduation, which stated on the graduation certificate etc.
- (8) Your research history should include only student registration period at graduate school of Medical Sciences.

6. Index of Thesis

- (1) Prepare the margins: top 25 mm, bottom 15 mm, left 25 mm, right 15 mm.
- (2) The font size of the title should be 12 point, while the size of the text should be 10 point.
- (3) Signature and seal using black ink or a black ballpoint pen and submit 3 original copies.
- (4) The index of Thesis should be no more than one page each.
- (5) Kana over name to indicate pronunciation.
- (6) A Japanese translation of the title enclosed in brackets shall be added to the English title.
- (7) Titles written on the “thesis”, “index of theses”, and “cover of the abstract” must be the exact same, every single word and phrases.
- (8) When there are published articles other than Thesis, indicate up to five.
The titles of reference articles should correspond with those in the printed matter (use of upper and lower case letters, italics, and others) as shown in a sample.

7. Abstract of Thesis

- (1) A cover should be attached to the Abstract of Thesis.
Titles written on the “thesis”, “index of theses”, and “cover of the abstract” must be the exact same.
- (2) Abstract should be summarized simply and clearly in about 300 words in English.
- (3) As the sample shows, it is recommended in principle that the abstract be divided into objective, method, results, discussion, and conclusion.
- (4) Minimize the use of abbreviations. When using an abbreviation for the first time, write the words in full followed by the abbreviation in parentheses. Example: Duchenne muscular dystrophy (DMD). However, this does not apply to abbreviations widely recognized in medical science and biology (for instance: DNA, ATP).
- (5) After graduation, in principle abstract of thesis will be published on Kumamoto University website within 3 months.
Especially, please note about the description of research results involving intellectual property.

8. Statement of Depositing Doctoral Thesis

In accordance with a recent partial revision of the rules for the granting of academic degrees, persons who have been granted a doctoral degree on April 1, 2013, or later (the recipients of degrees) shall, in principle, register the full text of the thesis for which they have received the degree in the Kumamoto University Academic Repository and publish it on the Internet.

- (1) The application must be signed (sealed) by the supervisor.
- (2) Prior to the publication of the full text of the doctoral thesis, applicants shall confirm that the publication will not affect the publisher, co-authors, co-researchers, collaborative companies, or other related people.
- (3) If the applicant publishes only the abstract of the dissertation due to "unavoidable reasons", submit "Statement of Depositing Abstract of Doctoral Thesis " together.
- (4) Please check the Kumamoto University Academic Repository homepage for notes on Internet publication.
